

FINDS ADAM KIEFER GUILTY OF CHEATING

FORMER HEAD OF SAVINGS BANK LOSES FALSE PRETENSE CASE

Specific Charge Was in Connection
With Payment of Two Notes Each
For $700—Indictments Against
Other Officers and Relatives are Pending.

Independence, Iowa, March 7.—Adam Kiefer, former president of the Kiefer Savings Bank at Hazelton, Iowa, was today found guilty of cheating by false pretenses. Kiefer was indicted on fifty-one counts by the grand jury last October. The specific charge upon which he was found guilty was in connection with the payment of two notes, each of $700, by D. B. Stoner. It was alleged by the state that Kiefer represented to Stoner that he was the owner of the notes, while in fact the notes were owned by two other independence banks. The notes were never returned to Stoner.

The Hazelton Bank was closed March 26, 1913.

Kiefer is sixty years old and was the organizer of a private bank in Hazelton in 1883. This bank went into the hands of a receiver when the savings bank was closed. Indictments are still pending against K. Kiefer and William Smith, vice-president and cashier respectively of the savings bank; also John, William and Earl Kiefer, other officers and relatives of Adam Kiefer. Earl Kiefer is a son of Adam Kiefer and has resided in Chicago fifteen years. At the bankruptcy proceedings, following the failure of the savings bank, evidence was introduced to show that Earl Kiefer had been loaned $80,000, giving notes as security.

DEFEND SOUTH RANGE RAID BY MEMBERS OF CITIZENS' ALLIANCE

Congressional Committee Ends
Hearing in Copper Country and
Will Hear Witnesses in Chicago
Monday.

Houghton, Mich., March 7.—The south range raid by members of the Citizens' Alliance, acting as a sheriff's posse, on union headquarters in a search for arms was defended today by witnesses before the congressional committee investigating the Michigan copper strike.

The committee tonight ended its hearing in the copper region and on Monday expects to hear witnesses in defense of the Michigan national guard in Chicago.

Witnesses for the Houghton county sheriff's office occupied the stand throughout the day.

That he had anything to do with the deportation of Moyer was denied by Sheriff Cruse on the stand tonight. Cruse explained the hiring of Waddell-Mahon men by stating that the deputies who nearly all were mine men were assaulted and refused to continue to serve. He said he hired the Waddell men to protect property.

Examine Score of Witnesses.
Calumet, Mich., March 7.—A score of witnesses were examined today by Representatives Taylor of Arkansas and Casey of Pennsylvania, members of the congressional committee investigating the Michigan copper strike, in an effort to ascertain the cause of the Italian Hall panic in which 73 persons lost their lives.

Men, women and children who had been in the hall when the panic started, testified a stout man wearing a long dark coat and a fur cap stood in the doorway and yelled "fire." Some said the man's apparel bore a "Citizen's Alliance" button, but none attempted to identify him.

WILL TRY TO FINISH HEARINGS ON ANTI-TRUST BILLS MARCH 17

WASHINGTON, March 7.—An effort to conclude hearings on the administration anti-trust bills by March 17th will be made by the house judiciary committee according to Chairman Clayton. Several Democratic members of the committee conferred with the chairman today as to the general anti-trust situation and as to the proposal that tentative anti-trust bills be combined into a single measure for presentation to the house. Some members have expressed dissatisfaction with the progress of the legislation and an effort will be made to hurry the administration program along.

The trade committee bill has been virtually completed by the sub-committee, but will be subject of a conference which President Wilson and Attorney General McReynolds and committee members before it is introduced.

The bill as drawn provides for a trade commission of three at $10,000 a year salary each with all the powers of the present bureau of corporations which is transferred to it bodily.

SPEAKER CLARK DENOUNCES ADDRESS OF CHARLES ZUEBLIN

Brands Statement as "Untrue, Brazen and Outrageous"—Democrats, Republicans and Progressives Cheat When Speaker Finishes.

Washington, March 7.—Speaker Clark signified his sixty-fourth birthday today by denouncing from the rostrum of the house an address by Charles Zueblin of Winchester, Mass., former professor of sociology in the University of Chicago, assailing the speaker's counting of votes on the report of the committee that investigated the Mulhall lobby charges. Democrats, Republicans and Progressives cheered and paid tribute to the speaker when he had finished.

Mr. Clark branded Zueblin's statements as "untrue, brazen and outrageous" and a reflection on the integrity of the house.

Representative Mann of Illinois, Republican leader; Representative McDonald of Michigan, Progressive; Representative Butler of Pennsylvania, Republican and others joined in corroborating the speaker.

Speaker Clark was given a surprise party late today in celebration of his birthday. Twenty or more of his colleagues presented him with a silver candelabra. Representative Reilly of Connecticut and Jerry South, chief clerk of the house made addresses of presentation.

ILLINOIS MINE WORKERS WILL HOLD NEXT MEETING IN PEORIA

Scale Will Be Considered at An Adjourning Session—Endorse Loan of $150,000 For Use in Canada.

Peoria, Ills., March 7.—The next convention of the Illinois District Mine Workers will be held in Peoria. This was decided by an overwhelming vote taken just before final adjournment of the convention today. The twenty fifth annual convention was shorter than usual owing to the fact that the scale committee had no report to make.

This matter will be taken up at an adjourned meeting of the convention to be called whenever the international scale committee has reached an agreement with the operators or the policy committee of the international union gives the several districts the right to proceed with their own agreements.

The following executive committee was elected: William Ha' Springfield; John Tuttle, Harrisburg and Robert Wilson, Marissa.

The following resolution offered by Delegate Frank Heffley was carried shortly before adjournment: "The coal miners of Illinois are in hearty sympathy with the striking miners of Colorado and when we go home we will do all in our power to carry the referendum vote in favor of $150,000 loan to the international committee for use in Colorado."

RELIGIOUS EDUCATORS ARE TO HOLD NEXT MEETING IN BUFFALO

NEW HAVEN, Conn., March 7.—The next convention of the religious education association now in session here will be held in Buffalo in 1915. The subject for consideration will be Child Welfare. This was decided upon at the business meeting of the association today. The delegates also voted to hold an extra mid-summer convention next year at the Panama exposition, San Francisco.

"Making social citizens," was the topic discussed at tonight's session. The speakers were District Attorney Whitman of New York, Governor Simeon Baldwin of Connecticut and Charles S. How, president of the Case school of Applied Science, Cleveland, O.

PLEADS NOT GUILTY.
San Francisco, Cal., March 7.—J. Parker Whitney pleaded not guilty today in the United States district court to charges preferred against him under the Mann White Slave traffic act by Geneva Hannan. It is charged that he brought Miss Hannan into California from Oregon.

"While I am an ardent advocate of temperance, I am intuitively persuaded that prohibition cannot be enforced in this country," continued Cardinal Gibbons.

WILL GIVE ARMS TO AMERICANS IN MEXICO

RIFLES AND AMMUNITION ARE SENT TO MEXICO CITY

Shipment is Made With Concurrence of Mexican Government—Trained Military Men and Gunners Are Among American Colony to Aid in Plans for Self-Defense.

Vera Cruz, March 7.—Following the recent despatch from this city to the British and German legations in Mexico City of machine guns and squads of trained gunners arrangements have been made to place in the hands of all Americans capable of bearing arms, weapons of defense in the event of an uprising in the Mexican capital. A shipment of 1,000 rifles and a large amount of ammunition arrived here recently by steamer from the United States. Of the rifles 250 were despatched to the capital and arrived there today. The remaining 750 were placed on board the Flagship Florida for disposal at the direction of Admiral Fletcher.

The shipment was made with the concurrence of the Mexican government but every effort was made to prevent the fact gaining publicity.

The arms and ammunition chests were carefully divested of all marks indicating the character of their contents. The chests sent to the capital were placed on board a special car attached to a passenger train on the Mexican railway with all the secrecy possible, fears having been entertained that the followers of the rebel leader, Emiliano Zapata, might derail the train for the purpose of capturing the arms.

It is not known whether marines or bluejackets accompanied the shipmen to Mexico City. If they did so they were in citizen's dress.

It is understood that the American colony and also a number of men with military experience who are competent to act as leaders in the organization were placed on board a special car attached to a passenger train on the Mexican railway with all the secrecy possible, fears having been entertained that the followers of the rebel leader, Emiliano Zapata, might derail the train for the purpose of capturing the arms.

FRANK NUNES HELD FOR SHOOTING HIS FATHER

CORONER'S JURY DECIDES YOUNG MAN CAUSED DEATH OF ANTONIO NUNES

Mrs. Nunes and Jacob DeOrnelas Charged With Being Accessories—Taking of Testimony in Case Lasted Through Entire Day—Many Witnesses Were Given Hearing.

The jury secured by Coroner Geo. W. Wright to inquire into the death of Antonio Nunes returned a verdict recommending that Frank Nunes be held to the grand jury for the shooting of his father and Mrs. Mary Nunes and Jacob DeOrnelas as accessories to the crime. The verdict was returned late Saturday afternoon after the jury had spent the entire day in the hearing testimony. The verdict was in the following language.

"We, the jurors, find that Antonio Nunes came to his death by congestions of the lungs and pneumonia ensuing from a gunshot wound on the night of February 3rd, 1914. We find further that the shooting of Antonio Nunes was done by the discharge of a gun in the hands of Frank Nunes. We recommend that Frank Nunes be held to the grand jury for the shooting of Antonio Nunes and that Mrs. Mary Nunes and Jacob DeOrnelas be held as accessories thereto."

The jurors who heard the case were R. R. Stevenson, foreman, J. W. Priest, clerk, John M. Vasconcellos, Jack DeCastro, Lee Carroll and W. A. Taylor. Among the witnesses examined were Samuel Nunes, Jacob DeOrnelas, Earl Cox, A. C. Hughes, Otis Taylor, C. F. Sieber, John Laurie, John Phillips, Nathan Carpenter, Miss Ida Venner, T. E. Laurie, Miss Sadie Guild, Dr. T. O. Hardesty, Dr. J. U. Day and Dr. W. P. Duncan.

Testimony of W. S. Todd.

W. S. Todd, deputy sheriff. I was called to go to the Nunes home next morning after the shooting. There were warrants for Frank Nunes, his mother and Charles Nunes. Myself and deputy sheriff Andrews went out next morning. We met on the road Charles Nunes, his wife and mother coming in. We stopped and told Charles we had a warrant for him. Told his mother to go on to Squire Dyer's office and took Charley and Frank in the buggy back to the house and asked the people who did the shooting and first they said they didn't know but afterward they said they thought it was Frank. Charley's wife came out and said she would tell the whole thing as near as she could. We went on to the Nunes house and brought Frank and he said he was the one who did the shooting. I asked him to get the gun with which he did the shooting. He went up stairs and got the shot gun (this it is), and I asked him where it was that night. He said up stairs. He said he was at the foot of the stairs when he did the shooting. He said he went up stairs and got the gun and stood at the foot of the stairs when he did the shooting, opened the door facing the east. He was about ten or twelve feet from his father when he shot him. Frank went up to get his gun. Said his uncle, J. DeOrnelas told him to protect himself. I asked him to show me the gun his father had. He said he didn't know where it was but later he went to the east room and got it. I asked him where was the pin that connected it. Said he didn't know. It was lying apart with no shells in it. It was lying behind a trunk in west room. Do not know that the deceased ever had any authority to watch the store at Savage station. We arrested Frank and brought him in and he gave bonds for his appearance. Also brought in Charley under arrest and he gave bond. Their mother was arrested in the city and gave bonds for her appearance.

Brother of Deceased Tells Story

Samuel Nunes said: "I live in Jacksonville, 611 Myrtle street, and I am a farmer. Am brother of the deceased, Antonio Nunes. I was called by telephone the day my brother was shot. I got the sheriff and asked him to go out there, the night of the shooting about 10:30. I met Earl Cox and Claude Servoss bringing in Antonio Nunes. About two miles north of Jacksonville, my brother was in a spring wagon lying down. I asked my brother what was the matter and he said he had been shot. Said they had been trying a long while to get him and had got him this time. I asked him who had done it and he said it was hard for him to say who shot him. He wanted me to ride in the wagon with him. I told him there was no room but I would walk behind. I had hold of his hand all way into the city to the hospital. He asked me to get him a drink and I told him I would as soon as we got down to my house. We got there and I got him a drink of water and we came on to the Passavant hospital and took him in and I asked him to tell me who shot him. He put his arm around my neck and said: 'Frank was the one who shot me.' Next morning about half past nine I went to see him with William Nunes and the states attorney, T. F. Smith. The hospital people didn't want to let us in. They called up Dr. J. U. Day and he said all right and I walked into the room. William Nunes was up as we came in. Dr. Day had given him temporary treatment.

Says Deceased Had No Gun.—"My brother told me he had no gun and had not seen one. Friday morning I went to see him alone and had quite a talk with him and he talked very well. Told me that morning that he was about the farm and he went to the house and Charley his son, had some baled hay on a sled. He asked him what he was going to do with that hay and Charley called him a vulgar name and my brother gave him a slap and he said he told Charley to get the weights of the hay and they would settle. He said they couldn't find all the weights but he told me they went into the house and came to a settlement and they were on good terms till about noon. He started to town and met Jake Ornelas on the road.

Tells of Shooting.

"Jake asked him where he was going and he told him to town. Jake asked him to go back home with him and he told him no, he didn't want to go back but Jake begged him and asked him several times to go back so he went back with Jake. He said they were around the place that afternoon and everything was quiet. That evening he came to his son-in-law's place, Carl Sieber and got back home and went into the house into the dining room. They had the curtains all down in that room. He asked his wife what it meant by having the curtains down. She said nothing. He was standing by the stove and asked his wife if Charley was there. She said she didn't know. He walked to the foot of the stairway and as he was looking up he saw Frank with a gun and he started back and said B—G—Frank what are you going to do? And at the same time the shot was fired. That was the last time I had any talk with him about the shooting. That was Friday, after he was shot Tuesday. Mr. T. F. Smith was with me when he told me practically the same story about a week after. He told me he did not have a gun in his hands at any time and had not seen one either. He had a gun in his trunk but had no shells for it. Said the trunk was in his room but did not say which one. He said the gun was broken and had been out of condition for a year. It needed a screw driver and pin or screw to put the gun together and he didn't have them and so couldn't use the gun. Do not know which room he called his. Have not been in the house for a long time. Have seen him several times since but he has not been able to talk. He was shot in the front. William Nunes heard a part of this conversation also.

Mentions Arenzville Visit.

Asked about previous trouble existing he said I don't know but my brother told me he had gone to Arenzville a few days before Xmas. He told me after Xmas. He told me he and a friend of his had bought some liquor for themselves and his wife had sent for some and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ornelas. When they got to the house they took the whisky to his wife and the old lady Mrs. Ornelas, they had sent for came right out back to the spring wagon he found the liquor he had left was gone. He went back into the house and accused the boys of getting the whisky. They told him they knew nothing about it. He made a search about the place and couldn't find it. He kept asking the boys where the whiskey was. He got angry and they his boys got hold of him and tied him down and kept him tied all night. In the morning he made a search for the whisky but couldn't find anywhere about the place. Still they were on good terms. I don't think the family ever got along very well.

Describes House After Shooting.

Earl Cox said: "I live on rural route eight, am a farmer. Was at the house of Antonio Nunes two hours after the shooting. Claude Servoss called me. When I reached the Nunes farm I found Mr. Nunes and family, also Mr. Hughes, J. D. Ornelas, Otis Taylor, Mr. Servoss and son Claude. I asked if Mr. Nunes was ready to be taken to the hospital. Antonio Nunes was sitting on the edge of the bed when I arrived. He was in the northeast room, his bed room. Mrs. Nunes was sitting on the edge of the bed holding Mr. Nunes. Had no talk regarding how it happened. Frank met me at the gate when I arrived. Jake Ornelas was lying on a bed in the sitting room. Did not learn who laid Tony on bed. There was blood in sitting room west of the bedroom, and on the floor of the bedroom. I can't say how much blood was on the floor but there was considerable. The most was in the bed room. The blood was between the stairway and the door that goes into the bedroom. I should think the blood on the floor was about ten feet northeast. The load of shot struck the door case into the bedroom. No blood in the stairway, none nearer than ten feet. The shot struck Mr. Nunes in the front. After I went in I asked if they were ready to get Mr. Nunes to the hospital and they said in a minute. Mrs. Nunes said get the feather bed and blankets, coverlid from the bed on which Mr. Nunes was visiting. Mr. Nunes was sitting up. Ernest Servoss helped me get the feather bed from the bed to the wagon.

The Journey to the Hospital.

Mr. Nunes walked to the wagon with the assistance of two men; don't remember who they were.

Mr. Nunes got into the wagon with the help of Claude Servoss and myself and we got to the hospital about 1:30.

Do not know of any trouble in the family previous to this case. The blood was little bit to the right of a line from the stairway to the door.

I did not see Jacob Ornelas moving about. He was lying on the bed still with his eyes open.

As we were coming to the hospital we met Carl Servoss and wife and heard some on the railroad. Met Sam Nunes and we stopped at Sam's house and got a drink of water. Sam walked a part of the time and rode a part of the time. Dr. J. U. Day was at the house when we got there. On the way in and drove ahead of us. We stopped to wrap Mr. Nunes up as we came in. Dr. Day had given him temporary treatment.

Thomas E. Laurie, a neighbor, said he was not there the night of the shooting. Had not heard of any especial trouble between Jake Ornelas and the family more than small differences. He had heard of Antonio Nunes having trouble with his boys but not very recently. The main cause of the family trouble was property. They have 176 acres and

CLEAN UP WEEK PLANNED FOR JACKSONVILLE

Woman's Club Will Co-Operate With Chamber of Commerce in Movement—Rest Room for Ladies Considered.

At a recent meeting of the executive board of the Woman's club Secretary Paul Fritchey of the Chamber of Commerce, brought up two questions for the consideration of the board. One of these was relative to a rest room, which is being agitated by the Young Men's Booster club, and the other was in regard to having a cleanup week in Jacksonville this spring and the president, Mrs. M. H. Havenhill, was authorized to appoint a committee to help further each proposition.

It was also voted to become a part of the general federation, a matter which was urged by Mrs. Dow, and taken up by the various clubs, especially the larger ones.

After all there is nothing to coffee, only the flavor. Neptune has that.

ORDERS SOUTH CAROLINA TO GO AT ONCE TO PORT AU PRINCE

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Orders to the Battleship South Carolina, which that boat is at least semi-officially immediately to Port au Prince, gave rise today to fear that fresh revolutionary disturbances had taken place in Haiti. The South Carolina had just reached Guantamano from Port au Prince when she was ordered to return. It was explained, however, that the orders were simply precautionary and that the state department had decided it would be unwise, in view of the newness of the present government to leave the Haitian capital without an American warship. The Nashville now at Port au Prince has been ordered to Guantamano for supplies.

AMERICAN ARTIST IS FOUND GUILTY OF KIDNAPPING SON

ROMORANTIN, France, March 7.—Ferdinand Pinney Earle, the American artist and Miss Charlotte Herman, charged with having kidnapped Earle's son, Harold, from a school near Paris were found guilty today after a two day's trial. Earle was sentenced to serve two months in prison and to pay a fine of $5 and Miss Herman to a month in prison and a fine of $3.25. Both the defendants were released this evening, however, in view of the fact that they had spent the time to which they were sentenced in advance of the trial. The abduction of young Earle, who is a son of the artist by his first wife, Mme. Fischbacher, took place last November.

ADVISE PERSONS OUT OF WORK TO STEAL FOOD AND CLOTHING

BOSTON, Mass., March 7.—Resolutions advising men and women who are out of work to steal food and clothing to maintain themselves were adopted at a mass meeting of the unemployed.

"Society having failed to give him work, the man who is unemployed is excluded from operation of its laws," the resolution said, adding that such a man "is thenceforth authorized and obliged to preserve life by his own efforts; that he must therefore take food, clothing and shelter where he can regardless of social edict against him doing so."

Misses Alvina and Augusta Bosse, Emma Butterbusch and Dana Baird will spend the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bosse of near Bluff.

CAPT. SWALES AND THE GREAT WAR.
On another page of this paper Capt. J. M. Swales gives the first installment of a vivid story of the great war of the rebellion. His experiences through parts of the great conflict were such that they were indelibly stamped upon his memory and although fifty years have passed since those strenuous days the experiences to him are as yesterday. The fact that this veteran gave such loyal service for his country and endured hardships such as only the survivors of Andersonville prison can relate, coupled with a native literary ability make his war recollections vastly interesting.

Capt. Swales writes with a wonderfully graphic pen and for those who follow his account of the war in the first installment and in succeeding chapters, there will come a clearer vision of one of the greatest conflicts the world has ever known. He writes history, but he surrounds the facts with a glow of interest which makes the history read like a story.

BOULEVARD STREET LAMPS.
The recent statement made that the city will furnish current for boulevard lamps if property owners will install and pay for the equipment has brought a great many inquiries at the light department in the city hall. Commissioner Brennan said yesterday that judging from the interest being taken that there will be a good many blocks in the residence district equipped in this way during the early spring and summer months. While in the natural course of events boulevard lights would be placed in the business district first, if residence property holders start the movement they will be served first. One property owner yesterday asked for an estimate as to the cost of having lamps on his street at intervals of sixty feet and figures also for lamps every 120 feet.

For the expense involved property owners could do nothing which would add so much to the general appearance of the streets as the installation of boulevard lamps. The illumination provided would be excellent, but the system has the added advantage of lending a great deal of night beauty to the streets. For that matter the lamp posts proposed are so sightly that they would help the day time appears of the streets as well.

RAINEY WILL NOT SEEK ILLINOIS SENATORSHIP.

(The Springfield News.)

Leaders of the Wilson-Bryan anti-Sullivan organization who are said to have been conniving at getting all of the down-state anti-Sullivan candidates out of the senatorial race in the interest of Congressman Henry T. Rainey of Carrollton, will have to look elsewhere for a candidate. According to news received here from a reliable source, Congressman Rainey has refused point-blank to consider at this time any proposition that he run for senator.

The congressman, it is said, has bigger things in view. He has established himself in the lower house of congress and stands high in the party councils. Congressman Underwood of Alabama, the majority leader next to the speaker the greatest power, is running for senator in his home state and may not be in the house at the next session. The chance that his mantle will fall on Rainey is said to be good.

Obviously, under the circumstances it would not be wise for Rainey to give up the practical certainty of his reelection to the house in order to engage in an expensive and probably hopeless campaign for senator.

As we said before, Neptune coffee has no equal. Sold only at Zell's grocery.

COMMENDS CANDIDACY OF JUDGE BALDWIN.

In a recent letter to the Courier John A. Bellatti strongly endorses the candidacy of Judge F. E. Baldwin to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Judge Thompson. Mr. Bellatti has a high regard for the character and ability of the Morgan county candidate. As before made clear the Journal believes that the Democrats of this county should use every effort to secure the nomination of Judge Baldwin. Mr. Bellatti in his letter says:

"The very important matter of choosing a candidate for the office of judge of our circuit court is very properly ausing considerable discussion. The first and paramount requirement with all of us is that our candidate shall possess the learning, integrity and temperament necessary to qualify him for the judicial office. Fortunately Morgan county has such a candidate in Judge Baldwin. From years of association with him as a practicing attorney and as county judge, I believe Judge Baldwin has such knowledge of the law, legal ability and application in the study of the law as to eminently qualify him for the office of judge of the circuit court. And in his personal and official honesty and integrity the people may have implicit confidence.

The volume and importance of the business of the circuit court of this county makes it of very great importance to the people of the county that a judge of the circuit court should reside here. In fact, it is almost a necessity that we should have a resident judge.

In addition to being thoroughly qualified for the office, Judge Baldwin resides in Jacksonville, and I should, therefore, have the unanimous support of the people of Morgan county.

"Of course, those of us who are not Democrats cannot vote for Judge Baldwin at the primary, and therefore it is incumbent upon Democrats to attend the primary and secure his nomination if possible. And I trust that you will through the columns of your paper continue to urge the people to do all they can to secure the nomination and election of Judge Baldwin."

John A. Bellatti."

The Blessed Dame

BY WALT MASON

How sweet are the curves of the old fashioned woman who knows how to cook and delights in the game; who makes her mince pies with a skill superhuman, whose tarts are delicious, and doughnuts the same. Alas, she is rare, and the man who would find her, no more in the towns or the cities will look; she's out in the country, the gentle reminder of old fashioned women who know how to cook; the old fashioned women, the housekeeping women. The motherly women who know how to cook. The husband, returning at eve from his labors, must eat from a can if a supper he'd know; his wife is away with her suffragist neighbors, to plan a parade through the slush and the snow. The women, intent on congressional measures, are paying no heed to the cookery books; oh, where are the dames who found infinite pleasures in showing the men-folk how well they could cook? The old fashioned women, the sensible women, the sane, normal women, who knew how to cook!

J. Hampton Moore.

Representative J. Hampton Moore, of the third congressional district of Pennsylvania, was born in Woodbury, N. J., March 8, 1864, and received his education in the public schools of Camden. For twelve years he engaged in newspaper work, starting as a court reporter and rising to the position of leading editorial writer on one of the prominent Philadelphia newspapers. In 1895 Mr. Moore accepted a position as chief clerk in the office of the city treasurer of Philadelphia and subsequently he served as secretary to the mayor. During these years he was particularly active in promoting the work of the Republican clubs of Philadelphia and of Pennsylvania. In 1907 he was elected to congress on the Republican ticket and is now serving his fifth term. Representative Moore is particularly well known for his efforts to promote legislation to improve the country's harbors and inland waterways.

An idea of the extent of Comstock's work can be realized when it is known that he has made upwards of 5,000 arrests, obtained more than half that number of convictions and destroyed several hundred tons of indecent literature.

It is more than forty years since Comstock first became an active worker in the crusade against vice. One of his first arrests was of a man named Kelly, whom he succeeded in convicting on a charge of selling improper pictures. On his way to prison Kelly drew a knife and cut a vicious gash in Comstock's cheek. The scar remains and that is why Comstock wears the flowing whiskers.

It was to Comstock's little office in Nassau street that Harry Thaw went for help when he believed that young girls were being impelled in studios. Other incidents that have brought Mr. Comstock prominently before the public in recent years were his condemnation of Elinor Glyn's "Three Weeks," his confiscation of Joseph Young's $10,000 collection of pictures and his threat to arrest every woman whom he saw wearing a sheath gown.

BEREA.

Miss Mae Martin and brothers, Clyde and Floyd, of Literberry were Tuesday and Wednesday visitors with relatives here this week.

Miss Ona Turner has a sister from Beardstown visiting her this week.

Carol Robinson was given a surprise social at his father's, Harrison Robinson's, on March 4, in honor of his 26th birthday. There were about 40 young people present. Mrs. Robinson served an elegant two course luncheon, after which there was much merriment in cutting the birthday cake and finding the different articles it contained. The evening was spent very pleasantly with music and a social time. The guests all wished Carol many returns of the day.

BOSTON AUTOMOBILE SHOW.

Boston, Mass., March 7.—Four hundred of the latest models of automobiles, including all makes and sizes and numbers, are on display in the Mechanics' Building, where the annual Boston Automobile Show opens tonight and continues through the coming week. The show is one of the most extensive of its kind that has yet been carried on in this country. Every available foot of space in the big building is covered by the exhibits of automobile firms or by the stock of supply houses. Motor vehicles propelled by steam, gasoline and electricity are all well represented.

RETURN FROM MINISTERIAL MEETING.

Methodist ministers who returned yesterday from the annual meeting of the ministers of the Jacksonville district held in Beardstown say that the sessions were of very great interest.

This year the meeting took the form of an institute Sunday school work and the financial plan of the church being the principal themes discussed.

The principal speakers were men who are making special work now of traveling about the country to address just such gatherings.

They were Dr. Brown, Dr. Trimble, Rev. Crowther and Dr.

McCart, Rev. Mr. Boyd, Rev. J.

W. Miller, Rev. C. F. Cusic, Rev. G.

W. Flagg, Rev. W. W. Theobald, and

Dr. J. R. Harker.

ANSWERING THE MAIL ORDER HOUSE

A doctor in a small town purchased an item or two from one of the large mail order houses—enough to get his name on their mailing list. Later on when he failed to order more goods the catalogue house's follow-up man got busy and in one of his letters asked a number of stereotyped questions as to why the former no longer patronized his house. The following is the sensible and hard-headed doctor's reply:

"Your letter of recent date asking why I had not traded with you for a long time, received, and as you ask me to tell you frankly why, I will give you a few reasons.

"First—I am in business in this community and am looking to this community with its varied industries for my support. I cannot ask the merchants of the town for their support if I do not give them mine.

"Second—in looking over my books, I fail to find either Mr.

Mr. — or other of the company's names, which reminds me that neither of these gentlemen have ever given me a penny's patronage. Why is this? Am I too far away, or have neither of them needed a physician, or are they afraid of the mail order plan when it comes to the practice of medicine? I can certainly give as good satisfaction by mail as your house can, and will appreciate a call from either of them when in need of medical service.

"Third—in looking over the subscription lists for improving our streets and public highways, I have failed to find the name of either member of your firm down for one penny to assist in the work. Also I have failed to find your name on any of the charity lists where help has been rendered to our poor; in other words, you are not down as a contributor to our Helping Hand Society. In fact, in all the movements for the betterment of our conditions, where our community has needed the united efforts of her public spirited citizens, I have failed to find your name among the list of our contributors. Your name is not on our city tax books, nor do I find where you have paid a city license to do a mercantile business in competition with our home merchants.

"These are a few answers to your questions, and I trust you will see the justice of them."

That the prosperity of a town may properly be gauged by the prosperity of its merchants needs no arguments. If the people of the town spend their money out of town—send it to Chicago catalogue houses—the merchants get just that much less, the town loses that much trade and that much money, loses income which as money would eventually go toward bettering conditions in that town and in fact building up the town itself.—(From The New Idea.)

PARLIAMENTARY ELECTION IN SPAIN

Madrid, March 7.—All Spain is awaiting with interest the outcome of the political battle to be fought out at the polls tomorrow. Seldom before have the issues at stake in a campaign for the election of members of the Cortes of deputies been so momentous or the feeling between opposing parties been so high. Hundreds of candidates have been nominated in the 400 districts of the empire, but the real battle is between the United Liberal and Democratic parties which now have a majority in the chamber, and the conservative elements which are struggling to dispossess them.

ADVISSES FROM RIO JANEIRO
SAY THE CAPITAL IS QUIET

Ambassador DaGama Announces That Government is in Complete Control of Situation.

Washington, D. C., March 7.—Vices to the Brazilian embassy here late today from Rio Janeiro said the capital was quiet and there was no ground for alarm on account of the disturbances which caused a proclamation of martial law. The government, Ambassador daGama announced, was in complete control of the situation and the state of siege proclaimed until the end of the month as a precautionary measure, might be raised before that time.

Today's despatches brought the first official reports either the embassy or the state department has received concerning the trouble in Brazil. The state department summarized its advices in this statement:

"The Department of State has received confirmatory advices from Rio Janeiro as to the proclamation of martial law by President daFonseca in the cities of Niteroy and Petropolis and in the Federal district. The decree issued during the night of March 4, is to continue in effect until March 31, being occasioned by agitation in the vicinity of the Brazilian capital in military and press circles, consequent upon the unsettled political situation in the state of Ceara. The measure is considered by the Brazilian foreign office as merely precautionary and the American embassy does not regard that the lives or properties of American citizens either in Ceara or in the cities under martial law are endangered."

Are You Going West? I Can Save You Money

You ought to know about those cheap one way colonist tickets to places out west and up in the northwest.

You can go out there in a good warm chair car—not a cent extra charge for that—and if you go on the C. B. & Q. Railroad you won't have to make a lot of changes. You can just travel easy, and Great Scott! What a lot there is to see on the way.

Maybe I can help you a bit—that's what the railroad pays me to do. If you want some stuff about it the country and a free map and all about the cheap tickets and good trains, why just phone, write or drop in when you are going by and I will tell you what I know and be glad to do it.

MAKE NEW BIDS FOR CONTROL OF THE CHICAGO NATIONALS

John R. Thompson, a Restaurant Man, Declares His Offer Has No Strings Attached To It.

Chicago, March 7.—New bids were made today for the control of the Chicago National League club. John R. Thompson, a restaurant man, telephoned an offer to Charles P. Taft at New York and Louis J. Behan, who represented another syndicate whose previous proposals were not acceptable, made a new offer. Mr. Thompson said his offer had no strings attached to it.

"We will pay a reasonable price and we will make no unreasonable demands as the reserve rule or anything else," he said.

The first Behan syndicate imposed conditions regarding the reserve rule and other things that made Mr. Taft decline its bid.

Associated with Mr. Thompson, is Charles A. McCulloch, who was one of a trio which bid for the Cubs when the first rumors that there was to be a change in the ownership became current.

JUDGES REFUSE REQUEST TO RECONVENE PETRAS GRAND JURY

AURORA, Ills., March 7.—Judges C. E. Irwin and M. Slusser at Geneva today refused the request of Louis Hollander that the grand jury be re-convened at once to reconsider the case of Anthony Petras, charged with slaying Hollander's daughter in a cemetery recently.

Hollander's attorney contended that Petras was at liberty on bail and that, as a consequence of an alleged threat made by Petras against her life the slain girl's mother was in fear that Petras might do her harm.

The state's attorney opposed the motion, contending that nothing would be gained by haste. He said everything possible was being done to perfect the case.

BRITISH AMBASSADOR AND BRYAN DISCUSS PEACE TREATY

WASHINGTON, March 7.—Secretary Bryan and Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British ambassador, discussed today details of a peace treaty similar to those which Mr. Bryan already has signed with thirteen countries and to which Great Britain has assented in principle.

The secretary announced that he expected soon to sign similar treaties with Argentina, Chile and Uruguay, while Brazil also had begun discussion of details. The treaties provide for the submission to an international commission of all questions which cannot be settled by ordinary diplomatic methods. Thirty-three countries up to date have accepted the treaties in principle. None of those signed have yet been approved by the senate.

Great Britain has gone further in endorsing the Bryan "peace plan" than any of the other great nations of Europe.

WHEREABOUTS OF LITTLE INDIANA GIRL IS STILL A MYSTERY

Search for Catherine Winters Has Been Pursued Through Many States—Father Still Confident She Will Be Found—Other Cases of Reported Kidnapping.

NOTABLE KIDNAPINGS OF THE LAST HALF CENTURY.

1874—Charles Ross, Germantown, Pa.; child and kidnapper never discovered.

1882—Walter Saunders, Atchison, Kans., never heard of again.

1883—John Navin, Boston; disappeared April 13 and never reappeared.

1884—Sophia Hasenon, Philadelphia; never recovered.

1896—Sadie and Martin Jamison, Newark; kidnaped on way to school, unfound.

1903—Edward Cudahy, Omaha; kidnaped and returned for ransom.

1909—"Billie" Whittall, Sharon, Pa.; kidnaped and returned for ransom.

1913—Catherine Winters, Newcastle, Ind.; kidnaped and no clue yet found.

Newcastle, Ind., March 7.—On the twentieth day of this month one year will have rolled around since little Catherine Winters disappeared from her home in this city, leaving not the slightest clue to her whereabouts. And although photographs of the missing child have been sent to practically every city of America and have appeared in newspapers and on moving picture screens from one end of the land to the other, her disappearance is the mystery it was on the day her distracted parents began the search.

Catherine Winters was nine years old at the time of her disappearance and was declared by all who knew her to be an unusually intelligent for a child of her years. She was a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Winters, well known and respected residents of Newcastle. The child was last seen in the vicinity of her home at about noon on March 20, 1913. At that time she dropped out of sight as mysteriously as if the earth had opened up and swallowed her.

For an entire year Dr. Winters has been engaged in a continuous search for his lost child. He has traveled over a large section of the country and has visited every place whence came reports of anything that resembled a clue to the whereabouts of the little girl. Only a week ago he returned to his home here after a fruitless trip to Arkansas where it was reported that a child resembling Catherine Winters had been found.

A peculiar feature of the case is that neither the parents nor friends of the family have ever entertained any other than the kidnapping theory as a solution of the mystery. Their firm belief that the child was kidnapped seems to be shared also by the authorities who have investigated the case, despite the fact that a motive as well as evidence of kidnapping appear to be lacking.

But those who hold to the kidnapping theory argue that the little girl must either have been kidnaped or killed, and as it is incredible that a child who was known to nearly every person in town could have met death in any manner in broad daylight without leaving a trace of the tragedy, the kidnapping theory seems to offer the only reasonable explanation of the disappearance.

On the other hand, there was no apparent motive for kidnapping the child. While Dr. Winters is possessed of moderate means his health is scarcely sufficient to attract a seeker after ransom. Furthermore, there has never been any demand upon him for ransom money since the child disappeared, excepting by persons who sought a little "quid pro quo" and whom it was easily shown by investigation that they had no knowledge of little Catherine's whereabouts or the cause of her disappearance.

The gypsy theory has been refuted by the certain knowledge that no gypsies were in Newcastle or its vicinity last March. A theory at first entertained that the grandmother or other relatives of the child living in Wisconsin might have been concerned in her disappearance likewise was proven without foundation. Other supposed clues led to Michigan, to Iowa and even to the Pacific Northwest, but nothing came of them. The offer of liberal rewards have brought no result. A special grand jury investigation of the case failed to develop any information of value. State and county authorities and the fraternal orders which Dr. Winters belongs have lent their aid in the search.

Dr. Winters, despite his long and fruitless search, still appears confident that little Catherine will be found. Others who are closely interested in the mysterious case believe that the missing child is living, but where, or under what circumstances, none can even guess.

JURY UNABLE TO AGREE.

Chicago, March 6.—The jury which is considering the case against Bernard J. Mahoney, assistant state's attorney accused of fraudulently marking ballots in the election in which his chief MacLay Hoyne was elected could not reach a decision tonight. At mid-night Judge Cavanaugh went home leaving word that he was to be summoned if a verdict was reached.

He is touring the country to hold conferences with college men on civic righteousness.

RESERVE GRAIN REPORT SHOWS DECREASE

ONLY 35.4 PER CENT OF CORN REMAINS ON FARMS.

Government Board Estimates Amount of Wheat, Corn, Oats and Barley on Farms March 1 From Reports of Its Correspondents and Agents Throughout the Country.

Washington, March 7.—Grain of last year's crops remaining on farms March 1st formed the subject of the Department of Agriculture's crop report for March, issued at 12:15 p. m. today. The department's crop reporting board, from reports of its correspondents and agents throughout the country, estimates the amount of wheat, corn, oats and barley on farms, with comparisons for preceding years, the proportion of each crop which will be shipped out of the counties where grown, and the percentage of the 1913 corn crop which was of merchantable quality, as follows:

WHEAT—About 151,809,000 bushels, or 19.9 per cent, of the 1913 crop remained on farms March 1st, 1914, compared with 156,482,000 bushels, or 21.4 per cent, of the 1912 crop remaining in 1913, 122,025,000 bushels, or 19.6 per cent, of the 1911 crop in 1912; and 162,705,000 bushels, or 25.6 per cent, of the 1910 crop in 1911.

About 53.9 per cent, of the 1913 crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown, against 61.6 per cent of the 1912 crop so shipped, 56.1 per cent of the 1911 crop so shipped; and 55.6 per cent of the 1910 crop so shipped.

CORN SHOWS LARGE DECREASE.

CORN—About 866,392,000 bushels, or 35.4 per cent, of the 1913 corn crop remained on farms March 1, 1914, compared with 1,289,655,000 bushels, or 41.3 per cent, of the 1912 crop in 1913; 884,069,000 bushels, or 34.9 per cent, of the 1911 crop in 1912; and 1,165,378,000 bushels or 40.4 per cent, of the 1910 crop in 1911.

About 17.2 per cent, of the 1913 crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown, against 21.8 per cent of the 1912 crop so shipped; 20.5 per cent, of the 1911 crop so shipped; and 22.9 per cent, of the 1910 crop so shipped.

The proportion of the 1913 crop which is merchantable is about 80.1 per cent, compared with 85.0 per cent of the 1912 crop, 80.1 per cent, of the 1911 crop; and 86.4 per cent of the 1910 crop.

OATS—About 416,476,000 bushels, or 37.4 per cent, of the 1913 crop remained on farms March 1, 1914, compared with 604,216,000 bushels, or 42.6 per cent, of the 1912 crop in 1913; 289,988,000 bushels, or 31.4 per cent, of the 1911 crop in 1912; and 442,665,000 bushels, or 37.3 per cent of the 1910 crop in 1911.

About 26.5 per cent, of the 1913 crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown, against 30.9 per cent of the 1912 crop so shipped; 28.8 per cent of the 1911 crop so shipped; and 30.6 per cent of the 1910 crop so shipped.

BARLEY—About 44,126,000 bushels, or 24.8 per cent, of the 1913 crop remained on farms March 1, 1914, compared with 62,283,000 bushels, or 27.8 per cent, of the 1912 crop in 1913; 24,760,000 bushels, or 15.5 per cent, of the 1911 crop in 1912; and 33,498,000 bushels, or 19.3 per cent, of the 1910 crop in 1911.

About 48.4 per cent, of the 1913 crop will be shipped out of the counties where grown, against 53.7 per cent of the 1912 crop so shipped; 57.2 per cent of the 1911 crop so shipped; and 50.0 per cent of the 1910 crop so shipped.

Sunday school at 9:30. Classes for all ages. Young People's meeting at 5:30. The public is cordially invited to all the services of this church.

The midwinter concert which was postponed from January 23rd, will take place on April 3rd, in State street church. Mendelsohn's "Elijah" will be given by the Illinois College Chorus, assisted by soloists and assisted by a string orchestra.

Mt. Emory Baptist church, A. A. Russell, pastor. Preaching at 10:45. Baptism at 2:30. The reading of the Church Covenant, the Hand of Church Fellowship and the Lord's Supper will be at 8:30 p.m. This is the converts' ("Rally Day"), and everybody is invited to come and help them. The choirs will lead the singing as usual. E. D. Hayden, chorister.

Second Baptist church—Rev. H. De Witt, pastor. Preaching at 11 a.m. "The Voice of God." John 12:23. The subject for 7:30 p.m., "Which way are we headed? A reckoning some day for as we sow so shall we reap." Bible school at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Laura LaFayette, superintendent. Mrs. Albert Moore, in charge of the intermediate work. Dr. A.H. Kennebrew will review the lesson. The president, Mrs. LaFayette, of the Springfield District Teachers' Institute, which met in Decatur, Ill., 16th and 17th of April, advises the school to elect delegates at once and forward their names to the district corresponding secretary. The entertainment Tuesday night, given by the third ward gleaners, will be in charge of Mrs. Nannie Blue and Mrs. Sallie Williams. Some of the things to be heard at the evening service: A very distinguished divine in the far west, posing as an authority on dancing, says that the difference between the tango waltz and the hesitation waltz in that the latter is respectable and allowable. From what school does he hail? The destructive elements, mixture and contact are there in both. Both are wrong. A very eminent surgeon in speaking of a certain class of criminals, says: "To the garbage heap with them." Has the soul lost its sensibilities? Have we no sympathy for those who survive the dead? To the garbage heap is the work of the heathen who knows no better. American manhood belittled and put to shame our brother slain at our door and no intervention, only "Watchful waiting." For this nation to say to our Mexican neighbor stop your warfare and see that they do stop would receive universal applause. If the "Monroe Doctrine" means anything, it is the right to try, at least to restore peace in Mexico. The disfranchisement and segregation of a peaceable, honest, industrious, loyal hearted people, who stand helplessly before the altar of equity, continues, what shall be the end?

AT PROVIDENCE CHURCH.

Rev. F. A. McCarty, district superintendent will preach at Providence church in the morning and again at Durbin church in the afternoon of Sunday, March 8th. Everybody cordially invited to enjoy these services with us.

John W. Kettle, pastor.

DR. LUCCOCK COMING FOR SPECIAL RELIGIOUS MEETINGS

Will Hold Series of Services in Connection With Westminster and State Street Churches.

Rev. George N. Lucock, D.D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Oak Park, Chicago, one of the largest churches of the Central West and one of the leaders of that denomination is to be in Jacksonville with the State street and Westminster Presbyterian churches the week beginning March 15th.

Dr. Lucock is one of the most forceful men in the ministry and is a preacher of unusual earnestness, spirituality and power. He will preach each evening and possibly at the afternoon service, dividing the time between the two churches. This series of meetings is designed to build up and inspire Christian people. Dr. Morey says that he heard Dr. Lucock last summer at the Winona Lake Conference, when a number of leading English and American preachers spoke and none produced a more profound impression than Dr. Lucock. All churches and the citizens of Jacksonville are cordially invited to attend.

First Baptist Church—Rev. C. H. Wells of Clayton, Ill., will preach at 10:45 and 7:30 p.m. Sunday school at 9:30 a.m., Carl Weber, superintendent. B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p.m. Prayer meeting Wednesday evening. All are invited.

Grand Spring Opening OF PIANOS

French & Sons Piano Company of this city take pleasure in announcing to the people of Jacksonville and vicinity the arrival of several car loads of Pianos from their large and well known factory at Newcastle, Ind.

Our Piano Parlors are Certainly a Sight to Behold. Everything New.

The product from a factory of almost a half century of successful Piano building gives us the advantage of displaying in our Piano Parlors an instrument that is recognized by the musical world as being strictly high grade. Some of the most beautiful models for 1914 in case designs and veneers are here.

We wish to thank the people of this vicinity for their liberal patronage since we bought out the W. T. Brown Piano Company, adding a host of pleased customers to the already long list.

We want every man, woman and child to visit our store during this grand opening. Come and be convinced for yourself as to what we have to say regarding this strong line of Pianos.

Are you interested? If not, why not? Opportunity knocks again at your door. Come, let us place one of these beautiful Pianos in your home on your own terms.

SPECIAL ATTENTION

We have arranged our Piano Parlors so as to display our large line of Pianos by natural light, giving the customer the advantage of seeing our Pianos just as they are.

Of All the Excuses This One, "I Haven't Got Time" is the Worst.

How often are men called upon to perform some civic and unremunerative duty and they beg off by telling you they haven't got time. They have time to burn, in fact, it often becomes a burden. The business men in this or any other community are continually loading up with more cares and duties, and yet some men either through lack of energy or from selfish motives serve no one but themselves. This is not the age for excuses.

Next Tuesday, March 10th, a Big Day

Much interest is centering in the meetings planned for next Tuesday in Jacksonville. The Woman's Club and Chamber of Commerce are having Mr. Miller of Champaign as their guest. Mr. Miller will reach Jacksonville at 10:20 a. m., and will be met by a committee of citizens who will take him on a rapid tour of the city. Mr. Miller promises to suggest the greatest improvement in the appearance of Jacksonville which can be made in the shortest possible time and at the least expense.

From the pictures he has seen and information received he believes that Jacksonville can be made to look different from any other city in the state, and he hopes to find a "Jacksonville motive" which may reappear in plantings at all public places.

As soon he will address a luncheon of business men at the Dunlap Hotel. They will sit down promptly at 12:15 and not be detained more than an hour and a quarter. Reservations must be made at the Chamber of Commerce office by 6 p. m., Monday evening.

In the afternoon Prof. Miller will address the Women's Club of the Illinois Way of Street Tree Management, who will explain how to so all the problems connected with the health, disease and management of our street trees. He has a definite scheme to propose which is within the means of the city and which will solve the whole problem in a satisfactory way.

Through his efforts the citizens of Peoria have organized garden clubs and are expecting to do $10,000 worth of tree and shrub planting at a saving of nearly $5,000.

He desires to cooperate with the local nursery men in a "City Beautiful" campaign.

Directors Meeting Tuesday Evening.

In the evening the directors and officers of the Chamber of Commerce will meet in the most important session of the organization's history. Questions of moment will be submitted by President Reeve in a Spring Opening.

Through the efforts of the Retail Merchant's Department all Jacksonville merchants have decided to make

Wednesday, March 18th, the big Spring Opening and Style Show of the year. Every line of merchandise will be shown to attract the shopper's attention to the new spring styles. Unusual and extensive preparations are being made by merchants who have heretofore never devoted their energies to formal openings and it is reasonable to propose that such a combined spirit will make for more successful event than the Fall Opening Day. Residents of Jacksonville and out of town buyers will be further informed of this important event.

WEDDING IN MILITARY CIRCLES.

Washington, March 7.—The army and navy contingents in Washington society turned out in force today for the wedding of Miss Frances Edward Smith, daughter of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Robert Gibson Smith, and Lieut. Harry Alexander Ballbridge, U. S. N. The ceremony was performed at noon in the fashionable St. Thomas' church. Lieut. Ballbridge and his bride will spend their honeymoon in Japan.

CHAMP CLARK'S BIRTHDAY.

Washington, March 7.—A huge bouquet graced the speaker's desk in the house today in token of Champ Clark's 64th birthday anniversary. Speaker Clark was further reminded of the anniversary by the receipt of a number of congratulatory messages from friends throughout the country.

LITERBERRY VISITORS.

Among the Literberry visitors in the city yesterday were Thomas J. J. Young, L. A. Cooper, C. T. Berry, Douglas Stockton, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clark and daughter Ellen, Samuel Crum, William Crum, M. M. Crum, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Henderson.

RETURNS TO ILLINOIS.

Ernest Jordan, who for the past two years has been in Missouri, residing on F. J. Blackburn's farm near Macon, has returned to Illinois and was engaged yesterday in removing his goods to the George Blackburn farm, north of Jacksonville. This farm was recently leased by F. J. Blackburn.

FALLING HAIR MEANS

DANDRUFF IS ACTIVE

Save your Hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggly hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scarf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.—Adv.

NEWS FORECAST FOR THE COMING WEEK.

Washington, March 7.—A partial eclipse of the moon is to take place Wednesday night and under favorable weather conditions will be visible throughout practically the whole of the United States and Canada.

On Thursday the Jews of America, in common with their brethren throughout the world, will begin their annual celebration of the Feast of Purim, one of the most important festal days on the Jewish calendar.

A mortgage to secure bonds having a possible maximum of $600,000 is expected to be authorized by the stockholders of the Pennsylvania railroad when they hold their annual meeting in Philadelphia Tuesday.

Rear Admiral Charles E. Vreeland, member of the general board and one of the best known officers of the United States navy, will be placed on the retired list Tuesday on account of age.

Prince Henry of Prussia, brother of the German emperor, is to sail from Hamburg Tuesday for a tour of Argentina and other countries of South America. Prince Henry's trip has been widely commented upon, owing to the report that the object of his mission is to impress the South American countries with the political and commercial importance of Germany and to offset the increasing influence of the United States in the southern continent.

Among the gatherings of the week that will attract more or less public attention will be the executive board meeting of the National Equal Suffrage association, in Birmingham, Ala.; the annual convention of the Cattle Raisers' association of Texas, in Fort Worth, and the annual meeting and tournament of the American Bowling congress, in Buffalo.

RECOLLECTIONS OF THE CIVIL WAR

Battles, Sieges and Campaigns In Which Boys of Morgan County Took an Active Part from Start to Finish

(By Capt. J. M. Swales.)

It is a far off cry back to the tragic days of the civil war—a war that still lingers in our hearts—that the Union handed down to us by our fathers should continue undivided till the end of time, and a mystery that so many who participated in the great struggle for freedom for human race should still be living to glory in the memory of the many campaigns, battles and sieges incident thereto.

It will soon be fifty-three years since Old Glory was lowered at Fort Sumter and the nation was thrown into paroxysm of excitement and turmoil that developed into the bloodiest and costliest strife in history. Soon after Lincoln's election in 1860, the war clouds began to lower and spread from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Gulf of Mexico to the remotest parts of the north. A little more than a month after his inauguration as president of the United States the great struggle burst forth in all its wild fury and continued for four of the longest years recorded in the annals of time. Every city, town, village and hamlet in the south knew that war—grim visaged and bloody to the limit—was on, and right here in Jacksonville there was as much excitement and warlust as in any of the other thousands of cities and towns in the great north. Lincoln's call for 75,000 volunteers was issued April 15, 1861. At that time there were two local military companies in Jacksonville—the Hardin Light Guards, commanded by Captain Charles H. Adams, and the Union Guards, commanded by Captain McLain F. Woods. These two companies responded almost to a man. The call was for ninety days. The Hardin Light Guards became Co. B, and the Union Guards Co. G, of the Tenth Illinois volunteers infantry. From Jacksonville they went to Springfield, where, after a few days in Camp Yates with two or three other companies, they went direct to Cairo, where the regiment was mustered in with Benjamin M. Prentiss, of Quincy, as colonel, and James D. Morgan, of the same city, as lieutenant colonel. Both Prentiss and Morgan were officers in the war with Mexico and very naturally much was expected of them and both of whom won double stars before the curtain dropped on the crimson drama in '65.

At that time it was the proud boast of those who were in a position to know (?) said it would only be a "breakfast spell" to restore the Union and shove the Confederacy off in the sea, and burst the confederacy into fragments and "hang Jeff Davis on a sour apple tree." That was the kind of talk the boys gave out, but they little thought or dreamt of what was before them and that ere the close of the fratricidal conflict the cradle and the grave would be robbed to fill the ranks of those gone on to glory and the grave.

On that bright spring morning on that far away April day I distinctly remember hearing Lonie Hunt say to her brother, "Bob" Hunt, who was a member of the Union Guards: "I want you to bring back a rebel flag for me, Bob, or answer to God for the reason." Bob didn't bring back any rebel flag for the very good reason that he neither saw anything that looked like a rebel or a flag of the new born confederacy. Cairo is situated at the junction of the Ohio and Mississippi rivers and was decidedly a very undesirable place in which to live even temporarily. The boys were kept busy, drilling, fighting mosquitos, eating sour bread and washing it down with brown Mississippi river water. Across the Ohio was neutral ground, sacred soil of old Kentucky. Beyond the Father of waters was poor old Missouri and the two local companies confined themselves to watching for the enemy that never appeared on the shores of either mighty river. There were three long and very uninteresting months and nothing occurred to vary the monotony of camp life, with the exception of an occasional shot from the big Columbiad in Fort DeSoto, located near where the rivers form a junction. All steamboats passing south were compelled to round at Cairo to be examined for munitions of war, or to be blown out of the water if they failed to heed the warning shot from the big gun. The troops were armed with old Belgian muskets, which were about as dangerous as the butt as they were at the muzzle, for they sure kicked like a mule. The picket line was on the levee and each night the grand rounds made their regular visit to see that the pickets were vigilant and doing their duty according to rules and regulations made and provided by the war department. Some of the guards were more vigilant than others, and wanted it understood that they were right there Johnny on the spot. Among this class was Mose Rosenbach of Co. G, a little sawed off Jew, who was in the clothing business here previous to going down to participate in the "breakfast spell"—that is to say, putting the confederacy out of commission inside of three calendar months. It goes without saying that Mose knew more about the price of clothing than he did about things military at that time the same being along in the beautiful spring time in 1861. One night while on picket the grand rounds approached the redoubtable Hebrew and he called out so loud that he might have been heard clear over on the Kentucky shore: "Halt! Who comes there?" "Grand rounds."

"You can't pass here without you say 'Ohio,'" said the ex-clothing merchant. That little incident furnished enough fun for the boys to last them till the end of the term, the same being late in July, '61, after which the boys struck tents and came marching, or, rather, riding home from the seat of the war, Cairo being at that time the "front." As the boys came marching up North Main street after their return from the "front," which in subsequent years looked a thousand miles of being the forefront of battle and the scourge of war, they were met with loud acclaim and each and every one was recognized as a hero who was just returned from the war and crowned with a laurel wreath of victory and with his name written high on the scroll of fame and fadeless glory was his to the end of time at least. That is the way they talked, then, but they must have recovered from those outbursts of patriotism judging from the way present day patriots fall to attend the funerals of those who bore the heat and red tempest that scourged our land from 1861 to 1865.

At the close of their term of enlistment several of the two companies re-enlisted for three years or during the war. The disastrous battle of Bull Run, July 21, '61, served to arouse the nation as it never had been aroused before. The shop, the field and the forum were deserted, and from all over the north the young men began to rally around the flag. M. F. Woods opened recruiting headquarters in the old court house, which stood just a little southwest of the old town pump in the center of the public square. Fighting blood was up to fever heat and there was a rush to get our names on the muster roll and by the 9th of August we were about ready to start for the seat of war, which was still at Cairo. Co. G of three months' service became Co. A, and was given the post of honor, the right end, Co. B the left, while Co. C of Quincy was given the third post of honor, which was the color company. At Cairo we were assigned to the old pine barracks which had been occupied by the three months' men. Our grub consisted of baker's bread, coffee, Yankee beans sow belly, salt pork, brown sugar, rice and dessicated vegetables. At that period we understood the culinary art about as well as we understood how to put down the rebellion in three months. As a rule we took our regular turn at the old coffee pot and camp kettle. My first experience at cooking rice and the desiccated stuff was something fierce. I filled the kettle about half full of the fluid dripped from the Mississippi river and chuck in enough rice or the dessicated article and let her go at that. First thing I knew the stuff began to swell and run over and out of the kettle and kept it up and then run over a little more and then still a little more. When got through it was done all right, but it would have driven a hog away from a slop trough. My experience along the culinary line was the same as tens of thousands of others who had donned the blue in the early sixties in order to keep Old Glory in the sky.

From the time we landed in Cairo, in August up to January the regiment was kept pretty busy drilling squad, company, battalion and regimental drills and doing all sorts of guard duty around Cairo and Mound City, Illinois, and across the Mississippi at Bird's Point, Missouri. All this time other Illinois regiments were gathering at Cairo, drilling and being moulded into a great fighting machine. Grant was there and in command of all the troops and after long period of anxious expectancy it began to look as if something would soon be doing and the demoralizing tedium of inactivity was at last to give way to something that partook of the real thing in the way of the grim visaged article. On the night of the 6th of November, '61, preparations were made for a demonstration against Belmont, Mo., a little village opposite Columbus, Ky., some 20 miles below Cairo. A number of transports, convoyed by a small fleet of gunboats, were loaded with troops and on the morning of the 7th dropped down the river and came to halt a mile or two above Belmont, where the troops landed and moved in battle array on a camp of Johnnies opposite Columbus. Along in the afternoon the sullen boom of cannon could be heard at Cairo and we knew the battle was on. At first the boys swept everything before them, but large reinforcements were speedily sent by Gen. Leonidas Polk, in command of the rebel forces at Columbus, and who in June, 1864, was killed by a Union shell at Kenesaw Mountain, Ga., were compelled to withdraw. The purpose of the expedition was to keep reinforcements from being sent to Fort Henry, on the Tennessee river, and Fort Donelson, on the Cumberland river, some 12 miles distant. The troops composing this little expedition were mostly from Illinois, among which were the 22nd, 27th and the 31st regiments and the 7th Iowa, all infantry organizations. Company K of the 27th, was recruited in Jacksonville and Morgan county and its first captain was Abraham J. Bogart, and the first lieutenant was Horace Chapin, who was promoted to captain of Co. D, and left his good right leg on the fatal field of Chickamauga, September 19, 1863, where Col. Wm. Kimball of the 115th Illinois laid down his life for the flag he loved. Belmont was a small affair compared to the other great battles that were to follow, but this grand old 27th Illinois covered itself with glory and won enduring fame on the bright pages of the history of the great struggle of which Belmont so far as the west was concerned, was but the prelude to the crimson drama that was to shroud the nation in grief and mourning for those who never returned from those thousand battle fields before the round up at Appomattox, where Grant, the silent man of destiny, received the sword of R. E. Lee, and the banners of the Lost Cause were forever furled, nearly four years after the first call for 75,000 volunteers and the breakfast spell"episode.

DIETZ MURDER

TRIAL ON MONDAY

Chicago, Ills., March 7.—After several postponements the trial of Mrs. Augusta Dietz and George Nurnberg, under indictments for the murder of the woman's husband George Dietz, is to begin in Judge Kersten's court Monday. Dietz was found murdered in his home on April 14, 1913, his skull having been beaten in with a hammer. Both Mrs. Dietz and Nurnberg have maintained their innocence of any complicity in the murder, though the latter is alleged to have admitted a criminal intimacy with Mrs. Dietz.

BIDS ARE ASKED

The board of education of the city of Jacksonville designs sealed bids for supplying the public schools with two lathes, two saws, one grind stone, for use in the manual training department; also for electrical equipment, both alternating and direct current. Specification for the same are on file in this office. Bids will be received until 12 o'clock noon, Monday, March 9th, the board reserving the right to reject any or all.

R. L. Pyatt, Clerk.

"RED WEEK" FOR GERMAN SOCIALISTS

Berlin, March 7.—The week beginning tomorrow has been set aside as "Red Week" by the German Socialist party and is to be made the occasion for great demonstrations. The week will be devoted by all the Socialist organizations in the empire to a great effort to increase the membership in the party and to secure fresh subscribers for the Socialist newspapers. Mass meetings are to be held in all parts of the empire and it has been agreed that female suffrage will be advocated by the speakers at all the meetings.

BUFFALO PREPARES

FOR BOWLERS

Buffalo, New York, March 7.—When the annual tournament of the American Bowling Congress is opened in this city next Monday the visiting bowlers will be greeted with a perfection of arrangements that has seldom been equalled in the history of the big annual tournaments. The officials in charge confidently predict that the event will establish a new standard of success for the tenpin game. The number of contestants is expected to smash the previous high record. Buffalo's location is expected to attract more bowlers from Canada and the East have ever competed before in the A. B. C. tournaments, while the middle west is counted upon to send its customary large delegations.

HEADACHY, COSTIVE BILIOUS,—"CASCARETS"

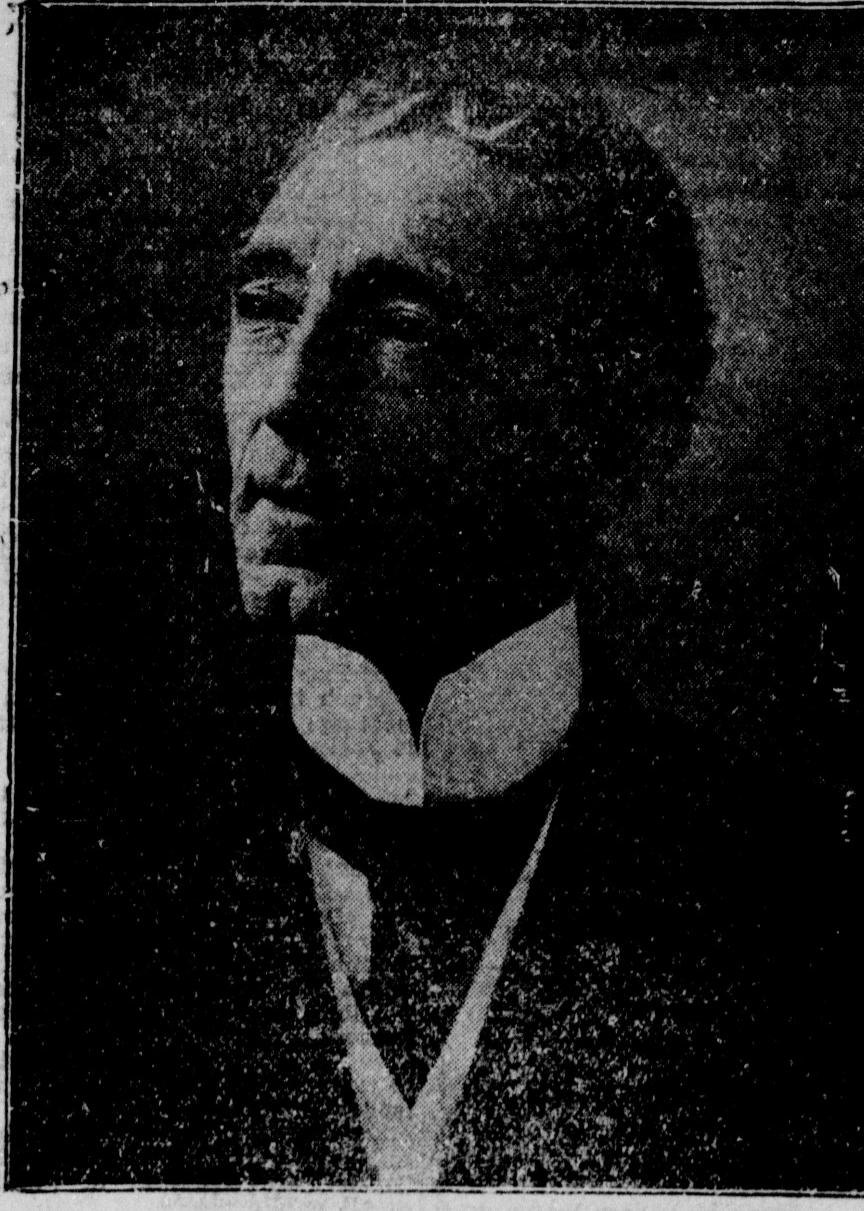

Sick Headache, Bad Breath Sour Stomach, Mean Liver and Bowels Are Clogged—Cheer Up!

Get at 10-cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, dizziness, coated tongue, foul taste and foul breath—always trace them to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

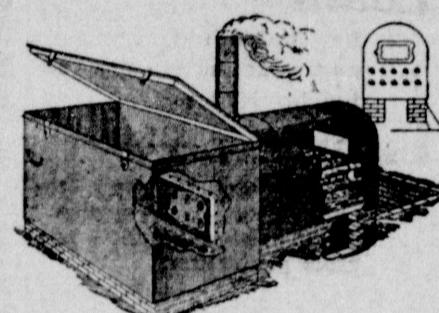

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

The Ayers Safe Deposit Vault

A Safe Deposit Box is not a luxury, but a necessity to the owner of stocks, bonds, deeds, mortgages, insurance policies and other valuable papers.

Anxiety about jewelry and silverware not in use is dispelled when they are in a Safe Deposit Vault.

It may be of interest to know that in the construction of the vault there are more than 380,000 pounds of steel and the door itself weighs 14 tons.

To rent a Safe Deposit Box in this vault costs less than one cent a day.

Private rooms for the examination of papers are provided for the convenience of patrons.

It's the Film That Makes the Picture

While none of us expect our cameras to reproduce pictures in all their original colors, still we find ourselves saying, "It ought to look more natural. I wonder what's the trouble." Particularly is this so when we attempt to record outdoor pictures. Nature hides her paint box in spite of us.

But with Ansco Film and Cyko Paper we can accurately make different tones of black and white or sepia the values of the original colors. And unless the film you use does record these color values accurately, the results will be disappointing, no matter what paper you print your negatives on.

Mrs. Antonio Nunes' name for life, have heard that some or them have said Mr. Nunes would be shot if he didn't stop carousing around. I can't say I was surprised when he was shot. He was said to be a hard drinker and more so the past few years. Have heard the boys wanted to get rid of their father.

Described Wound.

Dr. W. P. Duncan, who attended Nunes, described the wound which began at the right cheek bone, extended down perhaps six inches to the lower portion of the ear and to the jaw and almost to the middle of the neck. All the tissues were destroyed down to the deep vessel of the neck. It was favorable to infection and he had taken from it rags and flour which had been placed there by Mrs. Nunes to stop the flow of blood. In conjunction with Dr. J. U. Gay he had treated the patient till the time of death. Nunes received the best of medical and surgical treatment. The immediate cause of death was pneumonia, though when a man's system is debilitated by any cause he is less able to withstand a disease which affects him and it is not infrequent that such wounds end this way. He would have been far better able to withstand the pneumonia if he had not been wounded.

Facts About Autopsy.

Dr. T. O. Hardesty, county physician, testified regarding the autopsy which he conducted with the assistance of Dr. H. C. Wolfman, Drs. W. P. Duncan and J. U. Day were also present. In making the examination the cap of the skull was removed and the brain carefully examined; also the abdomen and all its contents, all of which were found normal as was the brain. The lungs were examined and found congested. Parts of them were found congested and in an inflammatory condition. The conditions were here given minutely, but as they were so much technical they will not be repeated, suffice to say the patient died of bronchial pneumonia.

A long illness and lying in the same position will debilitate a person and make infection easy and contribute to death by bronchial pneumonia. The surgical conditions, including the wound and infection incident thereto, confinement in bed, shock and general debility are contributing causes to pneumonia. Mr. Nunes died of pneumonia as many others die from surgical procedures and probably would not have died had he not been wounded.

Dr. J. U. Day's Testimony.

Dr. J. Ulysses Day: I was called the night of the shooting and went to the home of Nunes and gave immediate treatment. Found him sitting on a bed partly supported by his wife. I did not see Frank. Saw Charley after I had seen the patient. Saw Jake Ornelas lying down. I attended Nunes all the time he was sick at the hospital. All conditions at the hospital were all right and no fault there to find at all. He did not contract his disease from anything there. Will not say that the wound was a contributory cause of the pneumonia which ended his life. If a man is debilitated he is less liable to withstand disease.

Recalls Night of Shooting.

Otis E. Taylor, a neighbor, said: I was called up near the middle of the night to go to the Nunes home and went with A. C. Hughes. We found Nunes sitting on the bed and his wife was sustaining him. Jake Ornelas was there. As I entered the room two of the boys were leading Jake Ornelas across the room and he was unable to go alone. I suppose he was much exhausted over the shooting. Can't say positively he was drunk, but he was unable to walk alone. Some one said phone for Sam, but Jake and some others didn't want Sam and Bill Nunes to come at all. They said Frank had said they must get the guns out for Sam and Bill Nunes were coming, but I told them not to as they had had enough shooting.

Charley's wife said Frank did the shooting from the stair door. Hughes and Servoss took Nunes to the hospital. He wanted a drink of whiskey before he started and I wouldn't give it to him. The doctor also gave it to him. The doctor also gave it to him. But one of the family gave it to him.

Conversed With Wounded Man.

A. C. Hughes a neighbor, was cal-

ed to the Nunes home soon after the shooting. Found him sitting on the bed. He took my hand and held it ten minutes. Said he didn't think his boys would treat him that way. I saw the boys leading Jake Ornelas to a bed. He acted like a drunk man though can't positively say he was drunk. I saw no weapons. Nunes had no gun with him. He said he came to the house and found the windows all darkened and asked what it meant and about that time the shooting took place. Nunes did not say who did it but said he didn't think his boys would treat him that way. I saw blood on the floor of the sitting room ten feet from the stairway.

Witness Tells of Sinking.

Charles F. Sieber, a gunsmith and son in law of Antonio Nunes was the next witness. "I was not at the house at the time of the shooting. They have been having trouble a long time but generally I try to get away from it. I do not know the immediate cause but am satisfied it is the head of Antonio Nunes.

I am sure I would never stand what he has stood. She has a notion of fortune telling and horoscope things in her mind. She drinks, Tony drank and she has given me drink and I have gone to the express office and gotten booze shipped to her. I was at the house the day before the shooting. He rolled up his sleeves and went to work at the wash tub. His wife began to scold him and said it was his fault that their son Joe had gone to Arkansas but he said the boy went without any permission. After dinner we went out to the barn and hitched up the mules to haul some fodder. She came out to the barn and asked what we were going to do with the mules. He said: "Mary, don't you want me to use them?" She said if anybody wanted hauling done to let them do it themselves. She said to me, "If you don't stop putting mischief into Tony's head you'll get into trouble."

Gun Lacked a Screw.

"I have seen Nunes' gun and have worked on it. I have looked into his trunk where he kept it lots of times and he had no shells there and the gun could not be used because it lacked a screw and screw driver to put it together and I am sure there were no shells there. I suppose any fool could put the parts together and hold them with both hands so the gun would look as if it was all right but it wouldn't be. The boys had a number of guns of various kinds up stairs. If they had wanted to they could have jumped on Tony and led him down before he could have done anything with his gun.

Nathan Carpenter, a neighbor, said Charles Nunes came to his house about 8:30 to call up the sheriff; knew nothing more.

John Laurie, a neighbor, arrived at the house just as they were taking Nunes to the hospital; was not in the house. There was not entire compatibility in the family, I think the trouble was over the property which was in Mrs. Nunes' name.

Sheriff Rogers on Stand.

Walter B. Rogers, sheriff. In the evening of the shooting young Tony Nunes came to me to arrest his father on a peace warrant. I called up Deputy Andrews and told him to serve the warrant. I returned from the country about 11 and was told that Tony Nunes had been shot and I was wanted. I got a livery rig and Deputy Andrews and I went out. The house was lighted, but quiet. I called Charley out and asked what was the matter. I asked him if his father had been shot and he said he had and he didn't know who did it. I never gave Tony Nunes any authority to act as guard at the store at Savage station. The owner might hire a private watchman who would carry a gun, but would have no legal right to do so.

Other Testimony Given.

John Phillips, farmer in the vicinity of the Nunes home: Did not hear of the shooting till next day. Know the Nunes boys and that is all I know.

Miss Ida B. Venner, superintendent of Passavant hospital, testified to the arrival of Nunes in the hospital. The patient received ordinary attention and when desired by the physicians a special nurse was provided for him. All the hospital force can do is to follow the directions of the doctors. Miss Venner identified the daily records kept of the case. Mr. Nunes had for special nurse Miss Sadie Guild.

Miss Sadie Guild: Am a graduate nurse from the Northwestern Hospital at Princeton, Minn. Have had several years experience and in Jacksonville three years and identify the records of Mr. Nunes' case. He was not clear mentally several days before his death and recognized no one. He had the best of attention and all possible was done for him.

BANQUET PLANS OF POULTRY ASSOCIATION.

James C. Weber, secretary of the Morgan County Poultry Association has finished sending out invitations for the annual banquet, to be held at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening in the Odd Fellows Temple on East State street and has received replies from a number of poultry experts who will give addresses on various phases of the subject at the banquet. The list includes Dr. A. W. Foreman of White Hall, I. A. Engel of Latham, Ill., H. C. Wilhite of Greenfield, J. C. Johnson of Petersburg, a representative of the American Poultry Association, Mayor George W. Davis, H. H. Bancroft and Prof. J. H. Rayhill are among the Jacksonville men who will speak.

You can get coffee anywhere, but Neptune can only be secured at Zell's grocery.

PREPARATIONS COMPLETE FOR UNVEILING OF D. A. R. TABLET

Committee Announces Program of Exercises to be Held in Circuit Court Room at 3:00 O'clock Monday Afternoon.

The unveiling of the tablet in memory of the Revolutionary soldiers buried in Morgan county, which was placed on the Morgan county court house by the Rev. James Caldwell Chapter, D. A. R., will take place Monday afternoon and will be preceded by appropriate exercises in the Circuit court room at 3 o'clock. Judge E. P. Brockhouse will accept the tablet in behalf of Morgan county and Mrs. O. F. Buffe will make the speech of presentation for the chapter. The memorial will be presented the chapter by Miss Effie Epler, head of the Tablet Committee. The Hon. Richard Yates, as before announced, will speak to the assembly and the Hon. Horace H. Bancroft has been secured by the committee to make an address. The preparations for the unveiling have been completed and the members of the chapter hope that a large number may show their patriotism Monday afternoon and attend the ceremonies in honor of Morgan county's Revolutionary dead. The memorial has been in place near the south east corner of the court house for about two weeks. Monday, Feb. 23, was first set as the date of unveiling the tablet but postponement was necessary on account of the severe weather at that time.

The program follows:

Patriotic March—Jeffries Concert Band.

Invocation—Dr. R. O. Post.

Chorus—The Star Spangled Banner, directed by Miss Allie E. Goodrich, Music Instructor, Public Schools.

Presentation of the Tablet to the Chapter—Miss Effie Epler, Chairman, Tablet Committee.

Acceptance and Presentation to Morgan County—Mrs. Otto F. Buffe, Regent.

Acceptation for Morgan County—Judge E. P. Brockhouse.

Solo and Chorus—Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean.

Address—Hon. Richard Yates.

Song—Illinois.

Address—Hon. Horace Bancroft.

Unveiling of the Tablet—Miss Annie Clayton, Miss Janette Powell.

Song—America.

Let Garland & Co., tip off the new styles in hats to you.

GOLDSTEIN LECTURE FREE.

The lecture to be given by Mr. Goldstein at the Grand Opera House at 3 o'clock this afternoon under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus will be free and the public is invited.

A guaranteed watch given free with each boy's suit at Garland & Co.

MORTUARY

Smith.

J. W. Smith, of 823 South Diamond street, died Saturday evening at 5 o'clock, at Passavant hospital at the age of 45 years. He had undergone an operation the latter part of November. He took ill again February 7th and four days later was removed to the hospital.

He was proprietor of a grocery store located at his home. The store was conducted by his wife and he was an engineer for the Illinois Traction system. Mr. Smith was a man of honest endeavor and purpose and had a great many friends who will regret to learn of his death.

He married Miss Mary Johnson and they were the parents of nine children, all of whom are living as follows: Mrs. Wade Wellman, Aberdeen, Miss.; Harry, Essie, Floyd, Freida, Flora, Isidor, Clay and Vivian.

The remains were taken to Gillham's undertaking parlors and today will be removed to the family residence. The time of the funeral will be announced later.

Thornborow

A telegram received here Saturday announced the death of Alfred E. Thornborow in a hospital at Tucson, Arizona. The deceased was about thirty years of age and was a son of the late John Thornborow and a brother of Miss Emma Thornborow of this city.

The remains are expected here Tuesday and will be taken directly to the cemetery, where a brief service will be held.

Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hines, received a telegram Saturday telling of the sudden death of their daughter, Mrs. J. R. Brown at Faribault, Minn. No particulars of the death are known here. Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

HIGH SCHOOL LOSES TO SPAULDING INSTITUTE

Peoria Team Proves Too Fast for Locals, Game Ending in a Score of 30 to 19—H. S. Team in Criticized Condition.

Jacksonville high school basketball team lost their return game against Spaulding Institute of Peoria last night by a score of 30 to 19. Jacksonville felt the loss of two good players, Boxell and Reynolds. Boxell had a bad knee which kept him out of the tournament and Reynolds hurt his arm in one of the tournament games. Spaulding has a splendid team and their superiority was demonstrated in the first half when they defeated the locals 19 to 7. Coach Brother John accompanied the team here.

The following was the score:

SNOW DRIFTS STILL ANNOY.

R. L. Stewart of the Sinclair neighborhood who was in the city Saturday said that the roads in his neighborhood are still in very bad condition. There are drifts in many places and a man with a team and wagon has a very hard time getting along. The mail carrier in the vicinity mentioned gets around each day but is compelled to follow roads not usually taken.

G. A. Leach said Saturday that there are bad drifts in the roads near his farm three miles west of Jacksonville. In some places where the roadway opened a week or ten days ago the wind and weather have shifted the snow about in such a way that there is another blockade.

HIGH SCHOOL WILL PLAY ROUTT HIGH

Basketball Game Will Be Staged Wednesday Night on Liberty Hall Floor.

Basketball enthusiasts are interested in the game Wednesday evening at 8:30 between the high school and Routt high. The contest will be played in Liberty hall and a fast and hotly contested program is expected. The Routt line up will probably be: Groves and Woulfe, center; Clancy and Froelich, forwards; Maloney, Becker and Cain, guards. For J. H. S., E. Pyatt, J. Pyatt, forwards; Whitlock, center; Smith, Suthard and Hembrough, guards. Walsh, the star man of Routt is still out of the game and Groves is not in good shape. The high school will not have the services of Reynolds and Boxell, both good players. In the first game played this season between the squads in Strawn's hall the score was 21 to 19 in favor of J. H. S., the contest being an over time one.
